On Golden Pond

(comedy)

by Ernest Thompson Directed by Bonnie Whitmire
February 9-11, 16-18 & 23-25

Ethel and Norman Thayer return to their summer home on Golden Pond for the 48th year, welcoming their daughter, her fiancé and his teenage son. When the younger couple leaves for Europe, the boy becomes the "grandchild" the older couple has longed for. As summer comes to a close, Norman and Ethel realize their time together is also fading. But hopefully another summer still awaits them on Golden Pond.

Vanya & Sonia & Masha & Spike

(comedy/farce)

by Christopher Durang Directed by Annette Hobbs
April 13-15, 20-22 & 27-29

Siblings Vanya and Sonia share a home, where they bicker and complain about their lives. When their movie-star sister, Masha, swoops in with her boyfriend, Spike, old resentments flare up, leading to threats to sell the house. Hilarity abounds in conflicts between the siblings and is augmented by the clairvoyant maid Cassandra and an aspiring actress.

Snoopy (London version) (musical)

by Charles M. Schultz

Directed by Brandon Gash & Beth Norris

August 16-19 & 23-26

Charlie Brown and the entire Peanuts gang relive some of their most memorable times, and Snoopy realizes that his "monotonous" life isn't so ordinary after all. Lucy, Peppermint Patty, Sally and Linus, with all their antics, show the beagle about his great friendships and fulfilling full circle life.

Deathtrap

(thriller)

by Ira Levin

October 12-14, 19-21, 26-28

Sidney Bruhl, a successful writer of Broadway thrillers, is struggling to overcome a string of failed plays. A break comes when he receives a script from one of his students. Sidney offers to collaborate with the student to bring the play to life. Suspense mounts as the plot twists with thrills and laughter, and ends in a startling moment.

The Lion in Winter (dramatic comedy)

by James Goldman Directed by Jonathan Forrester

Nov. 30 - Dec. 2, 7-9, 14-16

The Plantagenet family is locked in battle to inherit a kingdom. When the patriarch, King Henry II, welcomes the King of France for a Christmas feast, the family must appear united. But, with three plotting sons, each eager to take the throne, and Henry's manipulative queen – who's been imprisoned for raising an army against the king – it's no simple task.
